FOLLOW FORM EXCESS LIABILITY POLICY

CERTAIN PROVISIONS IN THIS POLICY RESTRICT OR EXCLUDE COVERAGE. READ THE ENTIRE POLICY CAREFULLY TO DETERMINE YOUR RIGHTS, DUTIES, OBLIGATIONS AND WHAT IS AND WHAT IS NOT COVERED.

Throughout this policy the words "you" and "your" refer to the Named Insured shown in the Declarations. The words "we", "us" and "our" refer to the company providing this insurance. Other words and phrases that appear in bold have special meanings and are defined in Section III. – DEFINITIONS.

I. INSURING AGREEMENT

A. We agree subject to the terms, conditions, definitions and exclusions contained in this policy or any endorsement hereto, or any more restrictive provisions of the underlying insurance to:

1. Follow the same terms, conditions, definitions and exclusions of the underlying insurance; and

2. Pay on your behalf those sums that you become legally obligated to pay as damages by reason of the liability covered by and as more fully defined in the underlying insurance.

B. This coverage shall follow the same terms, conditions, warranties, limitations and definitions as the underlying insurance except for:

1. The premium;

2. The Limits of Insurance;

3. The deductible(s);

4. Extensions or renewal agreement, if applicable; and

5. Any exclusions, endorsements and/or modifications to terms and conditions included in this policy.

II. EXCLUSIONS

We will not pay for:

A. Any cause of loss or damage not covered in the underlying insurance; and/or

B. Any cause of loss or damage specifically not covered in this policy or in endorsements attached to this policy.

III. DEFINITIONS

A. Underlying insurance means all policies set forth in the Schedule of Underlying.

B. Named Insured means the entity listed on the Declarations as the Named Insured.

IV. GENERAL CONDITIONS

The conditions set forth in this section IV. GENERAL CONDITIONS are in addition to those set forth in the underlying insurance and are specific to the coverage provided by this policy.

A. Attachment

1. Coverage under this policy shall not drop down for any reason whatsoever and shall only attach after all Limits of Insurance of the underlying insurance have in fact been exhausted by payment, in legal currency, of covered loss by or on behalf of the insurers of the underlying insurance, or by or on behalf of the Named Insured. The risk of uncollectability of any underlying insurance (in whole or in part) for any reason whatsoever is expressly retained by the Named Insured and is not insured under this policy or assumed by us.

2. If the Limits of Insurance of the underlying insurance are reduced, this policy shall continue in force as excess insurance for the remaining amount of the Limits of Insurance of the underlying insurance. If the Limits of Insurance of the underlying insurance are exhausted by the payment of loss, this policy shall continue in force as primary insurance, subject to any applicable retentions and up to the Limits of Insurance set forth in the Declarations.

3. This policy does not provide excess insurance above any sublimit of liability available under any underlying insurance unless we have agreed to provide such excess coverage by separate endorsement to this policy. However, where payments of amounts subject to a sublimit erode or reduce the Limits of Insurance of the underlying insurance, this policy shall recognize such erosion or reduction of the Limits of Insurance of the underlying insurance.

B. Limits of Insurance

The Limits of Insurance set forth in the Declarations represent the maximum amount payable under this policy during the policy period for any one claim and in the aggregate for all claims.

C. Defense and Settlement

1. Unless amended by endorsement hereto, any coverage for defense costs and expenses shall be subject to the terms and conditions of the underlying insurance.

2. The Named Insured shall not admit liability, offer to settle, or agree to any settlement for an amount that would implicate our Limits of Insurance as set forth in Declarations without our prior written consent, which consent shall not be unreasonably withheld or delayed.

D. Notice

As a condition precedent to our obligation to provide coverage for any matter under this policy, the Named Insured shall provide notice of any such matter to us in the same time frame and manner as required by the terms and conditions as required under the underlying insurance. The Named Insured also agrees that it will provide notice to us with respect to any matter submitted for coverage to the underlying insurance, and that such notice shall be made to us at the same time and in the same manner as it is provided to the underlying insurance. Any such notices required hereunder shall be provided to us at the address set forth in the Declarations.

E. Insurer Rights

1. We shall have the same rights, privileges and protections afforded in the underlying insurance. We shall also have the right and opportunity, but not the obligation, to associate in the investigation, settlement or defense of any claim, suit or proceeding reasonably likely to be covered under this policy, in which event, the parties shall cooperate in the investigation, settlement or defense of such claim, suit or proceeding.

2. We shall have the right and duty to defend such claim, suit or proceeding to which this policy applies if and only if:

   a. There is a right and duty to defend such claim, suit or proceeding under the underlying insurance; and

   b. the applicable underlying insurance has been exhausted. We shall not be obligated to defend any claim, suit or proceeding after the applicable Limits of Liability of this policy have been exhausted in accordance with Section IV. General Conditions, A. Attachment, above.

F. Underlying Insurance - Modification and Maintenance

1. Any change in, modification to or termination of the underlying insurance or this policy or assignment of interest under this policy must be agreed to in writing by us, and in no event shall any such change, modification or assignment affect this policy's excess position or attachment point as set forth herein.

2. It is a condition of this policy that the underlying insurance shall be maintained in full force and effect, except for any reduction of the aggregate limits of liability contained therein solely by payment by the underlying insurance or the Named Insured, of any losses covered by this policy. In the event of the Named Insured's failure to maintain the underlying insurance in full force and effect and except with respect to the aforementioned aggregate reduction, coverage hereunder shall not be invalid, but shall apply to the same extent and subject to the requirements of Section IV. General Conditions A. Attachment that it would have applied had there been compliance with this condition.

G. Compliance With Applicable Trade and Economic Sanction Law

This insurance coverage does not apply to the extent that trade or economic sanctions prohibit us or any member of our insurance group from providing insurance coverage, including, but not limited to, the payment of claims.
